Training Course and Apprenticeship Scheme

Remembering Yesterday Caring Today

A reminiscence project for people living with dementia and their carers.

For over 20 years, our Remembering Yesterday, Caring Today (RYCT) groups have been bringing people's memories to life- from schooldays and work to travel and home life.

Through art, music and conversation, we create a fun and welcoming space to spark joy and connection for everyone.

The European Reminiscence Network announces a new Training Course and Apprenticeship Scheme in Reminiscence Arts in Dementia Care - in partnership with the University of Greenwich.

This 2-day training course and apprenticeship scheme will be of interest to arts practitioners, community arts workers, oral historians, occupational and arts therapists, group workers, reminiscence practitioners, staff from health and social care services who are interested and/or experienced in positive approaches to dementia care.

A. 2-day Training course in reminiscence arts in dementia care

You are invited to apply for a 2-day training course to be held at the Argenta House, Camden.

Venue: Argenta House, 1 Aspern Grove, Camden, London NW3 2AB

Dates: Thursday 17th & Friday 18th September 2026

Time: 9:30 – 17:00 on both days. A light lunch will be served.

This experiential course will be led by highly experienced reminiscence arts practitioners and trainers, with input from volunteers and former carers. It will be certificated by the European Reminiscence Network.

B. 4-month apprenticeship scheme in reminiscence arts in dementia care

Up to ten places are available for trainees on the above course to join our apprenticeship scheme for people who wish to become accredited facilitators of reminiscence groups for people living with dementia and their carers.

The apprenticeship scheme involves attending, observing and participating in at least 6 out of 10 weekly group sessions of the RYCT project with local people living with dementia and their family carers. The 10 weekly sessions will be held on Friday afternoons at Argenta House, Belsize Park from 25th September 2026.

Those who wish to become European Reminiscence Network accredited facilitators of RYCT will also be required to give evidence of their ability to observe and reflect on the project through a written response, or an audio or video diary capturing their experience of the project, reflecting on the content and impact of the sessions and how far they have met the needs of the participating families. Those successfully completing these requirements will receive accreditation as RYCT facilitators from the European Reminiscence Network. Further details are available on request.

The training and apprenticeship scheme is part of a 10-country partnership, sharing and developing the European Reminiscence Network's experience of running this successful project for more than 20 years. See www.rememberingyesterdaycaringtoday.com and www.europeanreminiscencenetwork.org

The cost of the 2-day training is £120, and for those joining the apprenticeship scheme, there will be a further £120 fee towards the support and evaluation provided by course leaders. We offer 4 subsidised training spaces and 2 subsidised apprentice places at half the above costs for anyone living or working in Camden. With an additional 2 training and 2 apprentice places reserved for our project partners: Camden Carers Centre and Age UK Camden.

If you wish to apply, please contact us at information.ryct.projects@gmail.com, indicating your skills and interest in the training course - or the training and apprenticeship scheme. You are welcome to include a CV. Please note: if we have your CV or expression of interest, there is no need to resend this.
